

Learner of the Week – Friday 3rd October 2025

Butterflies

Tommy – He has shown fantastic learning in maths, applying his understanding of 2 and showing it in different ways.

Ladybirds

Elodie – She extended her own maths learning by finding 2 outside and drawing her own number 2!

Squirrels

Harriet – She has been like Engaging Enzo this week by trying really hard in our writing lessons. She has been trying really hard to write her cursive letters.

Hedgehogs

Max – He showed lots of values with his handwriting and remembering his full stops and finger spaces.

Owls

Joseph – You are just like Learning Lenny, you work hard and are a fantastic role model to your friends.

Robins

Rupert has reflected on his learning and made improvements showing a brilliant work ethic and a mature attitude to learning.
