

Learner of the Week – 1st March 2024

Butterflies

Teddy – For always being caring and considerate of all his friends while in MOLE.

Ladybirds

Halley – She shows great listening in Ladybirds class, when learning and when playing with her friends.

Squirrels

Harry – He has shown this week that his is like engaging Enzo. He was engaged in our history learning about Jacque Cousteau asking lots of lovely questions. Well done Harry!

Hedgehogs

Layla – She has been like Lenny because she has now mastered using finger spaces!

Owls

Grace – She has been so engaged this week in her writing. She wrote a lovely diary entry but then reflected on her work and did a fantastic job of editing- Reflective Rex would be proud!

Robins

Mia – She showed us all the school values during our dance lesson this week. She worked creatively to make and perform an amazing dinosaur inspired dance.
