

Learner of the Week – 26th April 2024

Butterflies

Owen – He is always willing to help his peers with anything they need. Helping with construction, art and being an all-round good friend.

Ladybirds

Joshua – He is always keen to share his incredible understanding of animals and insects and helps his peers to learn more fab facts!

Squirrels

Berwyn – This week in forest school he worked really well with his team to gather resources and build a mini world.

Hedgehogs

Jorja – You are always helping your table with learning tasks.

Owls

Sadie – You have been an excellent team player this week, really helping and looking out for your partner in guided reading, just like Engaging Enzo.

Robins

Millie – You are a great help to others and in forest school you worked so well as a team to build a shelter.
